1. Exchange of scholars and staff.
2. Exchange of undergraduate and graduate students.
3. Exchange of academic information and materials.

The exchange programmes as mentioned in Article 2, are not intended to be legally binding documents. They are meant to describe the nature and suggest the guidelines of the exchange programme. Nothing, therefore, shall diminish the full autonomy of either institution, nor will any constraints be imposed by either upon the other carrying out the agreement.

Article 4

Both universities shall designate a programme officer to develop and co-ordinate the specific programmes agreed upon.

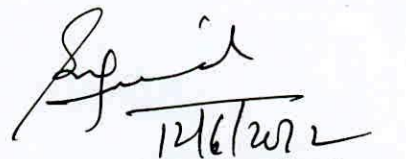

Article 5

This MoU should be reviewed by both institutions every three years. It is also understood that either institution may terminate the MoU at any time, giving the other not less than 6 months notice of its wish to terminate, in order to avoid any possible inconvenience to the other institution.
